The Right to Nature - Social movements, environmental justice and neoliberal natures
Apostolopoulou, E.; Cortes-Vazquez, J.A.

Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION: Neoliberalism and environmental movements around the World after the 2008 financial crash: Defending the right to nature
Elia Apostolopoulou and Jose A. Cortes-Vazquez

PART 1: extractivism and environmental justice movements
Self-determination as resistance: re-asserting control over natural resources in Colombia.
Charlotte Christiaens, Lucy Mears, Andy Whitmore and Hannibal Rhoades
Petro-Politics and Local Natural Resource Protection: Grassroots Opposition to the Keystone XL Pipeline in Nebraska.
James Ordner
Navigating state-led extractivism in Ecuador and Russia: fluid identities and agendas of socio-environmental movements.
Denisse Rodriguez and Julia Loginova
Beyond winning and losing: the rise of the social movement against mega-mining projects in Northern Greece.
Citizens' Coordinating Committee of Ierissos against gold-copper mining
Land rights and justice in neoliberal Mozambique: The case of Afungi community relocations.
Kate Symons
Possibilities and Pitfalls of Environmental Justice Action: Learning from Roşia Montană and Yaigojë Apaporis Anti-mining Struggles.
Ioana Florea and Hannibal Rhoades

PART 2: Green Struggles against capitalist urbanization And Infrastructure Construction
Egyptian Environmentalism and Urban Grassroots Mobilisation.
Noura Wahby
Landscape and outdoor domestic space towards food sovereignty and environmental regeneration: approaches from Mozambique and Latin America.
Céline Veríssimo and Leo Name
Access to information and the construction of sustainability discourse in the case of the Bus Rapid Transit Transolímpica, in Rio de Janeiro.
Camila Nobrega Rabello Alves
The Political Ecology of Urban Space in Transition.
Sam Beck
Environmental justice claims and dimensions in anti-megaproject campaigns in Europe: The case of the forum against Unnecessary and Imposed Megaprojects.
Alfred Burballa-Noria

PART 3: The economic valuation of nature: from academic debates to activist action
Isolation and abstraction to tackle deforestation: The problem of theory as a practical problem in environmental issues.
Mario Hernandez-Trejo
Natural capital accounting (NCA): roles in corporate environmental stewardship.

Les Levidow
Offsetting for whom?

Re:Common
Nature is our Right: Framing a new nature protection debate in Europe.

Sandra Bell and Friedrich Wulf
Nature’s Rights and Earth Jurisprudence - A New Ecologically-Based Paradigm for Environmental Law

Mumta Ito and Massimiliano Montini
Nature, Rights and Political Movements

Larry Lohmann
PART 4: Tracking alternatives to the neoliberal agenda: radical environmentalism and community action
The commons as organizing infrastructure: Indigenous collaborations and post-neoliberal visions in Ecuador.

Tristan Partridge
Illegal Camping on ‘Stolen Native Land’.

Amanda K. Winter
Gerontocracies of affect: how the "politics of austerity" have reshaped elder environmental radicalism.

Mary Gearey
Humans in the landscape: Low-impact Development as a response to the neoliberal environmental agenda.

Julyan Levy